

Jay Krieger

Jay holds CDI and CLIP-R credentials with RID for nearly 10 years. He has worked in various interpreting settings which include Education, Health, Mental Health, State and Legal. He has provided Protactile interpreting and Co-navigator services for the DeafBlind. Legal interpreting is Jay's passion. Jay presented several workshops over the years. Jay was among the first group forming DIC1, part of DIC2 and DIC3 committees. Jay and few others also founded the National Deaf Interpreters (NDI) organization. He holds a BS degree from DePaul University, AAS degree from NTID/RID and attended Gallaudet University. He taught Physics and Math to the Deaf Kenyans while serving with the Peace Corps in 2012-2013. Jay is a father of three daughters, and a pappy of five grandchildren. Jay enjoys traveling, backpacking, hiking, and biking.

